

"Our family has been using Bachrach for decades. The service has always been first-rate. The picture quality is superb and the relationship that the photographers have with the clients is beautiful.

Our photographer, as far as I'm concerned, is the best in the business. He was always in the right place at the right time to capture the most beautiful moments of our lives.

The main reason we continue to use Bachrach could be summed up in one word – VALUE. If you asked me where to go for wedding photography I would show you the beautiful pictures that Bachrach has done for me and my family. I believe that would be enough. Once you see the excellent quality and attention to detail, you wouldn't need to look any further."
